

GOVERNMENT OF PUERTO RICO

LUIS G. FORTUÑO
GOVERNOR

Dear Friend:

Have you already registered for the Caribbean Marketplace 2010? We really want you to come so please sign-in today!

Back in 2006, we were honored to host the event at the sparkling new Puerto Rico Convention Center. We are confident that next year, it will be even more insightful and productive.

Everything points to 2010 as the year that will spur the Caribbean tourism industry's recovery. As a participant of the business-to-business marketing event for the Caribbean hotel and tourism industry, you'll be set to meet, strategize and create alliances with buyers from around the globe to make sure this happens. You simply cannot miss it!

Nor can you miss out on the many attractions Puerto Rico offers to both business and leisure travelers. As you arrive in the midst of the legendary Puerto Rico Holiday season (which lasts from late November thru late January) you will find out that our Island is the ideal setting for creating ties among all – convention participants and your friendly hosts.

Hope to see you soon at the Caribbean Marketplace 2010!

Sincerely,
