

START LOCALLY THINK GLOBALLY

Why be a member of CHTA?

Being a member of your local hotel and tourism association is the first step towards being involved with the travel industry community, but it's also important to think globally. Being a member of the Caribbean Hotel and Tourism Association takes you to the next step.

THERE ARE MANY DIRECT AND INDIRECT BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP:

Networking and participation

CHTA membership gives you access to:

- The CHTA's member-hotel database, listing all 700+ Caribbean hotel members
 - CHTA Board of Directors (100+) contact information
 - National Hotel Associations contact information
 - Caribbean Ministers and Directors of Tourism contact information
 - Meetings: Marketing, Membership and Advocacy committee meetings, and Board of Directors meetings.
- All members are encouraged to attend and participate.

Advocacy

There are many regional and global issues that affect the Caribbean tourism industry that cannot always be addressed locally. CHTA gives you a voice in London, Brussels and Washington, DC. Working with global, regional and Diaspora partners, we represent your interests wherever and whenever travel and tourism is in the spotlight.

Some of these issues include:

- Direct and indirect taxation on the Caribbean tourism industry
- Aviation – both international and regional
- Crisis Management – storms, viruses, terrorism, etc.
- Regional marketing
- International funding
- “Green”/ sustainable tourism
- Human resource development

CHTA's new “Tourism is Key” campaign, backed by solid data from Oxford Economics and the WTTC, seeks to emphasize the importance of travel and tourism within the Caribbean to political leaders and influencers, creating a more favorable business environment for our 1,100+ members.

Meetings and Events

CHTA facilitates various annual events and conferences for its members (only):

- Caribbean Marketplace – with 1,500 delegates, it's the region's largest and most important marketing event
- The Caribbean Hotel and Tourism Investment Conference – 400 delegates
- The Small Hotels Retreat – 200+ delegates
- “Taste of the Caribbean” – 13+ competing Caribbean island culinary teams
